

TBG WELCOMES NEW PRESIDENT JOHN CHRISTOPHERSEN FOR RELEASE AT WILL - CURRENT CLIENTS

Dear friends and valued clients,

With the new season comes big news at the Taylor Business Group!

We are pleased to let you be among the first to know that after 13 years building TBG with his wife Elaine, co-founder Larry Schulze has decided to step down as President. As such, we are proud to announce that John Christophersen will be stepping up to fill the position and launch TBG into the future, continuing to find solutions for your business's complex management, sales, finance, and accounting challenges.

John joined the Taylor Business Group in 2007 as a Senior Consultant and boasts over 30 years of electronics and IT experience, including being owner and CEO of the largest independent Apple dealer in the Chicago Metro Area. His variety of technical, sales, and management experience has helped TGB evolve into the success it is today, serving hundreds of IT Solution Providers nationwide.

"As one of our premier Senior Consultants, John has been instrumental in the company's growth over the past seven years. With John's experience, leadership skills, and energy, we are excited to have John lead TBG to the next level," remarked Larry when asked about the transition.

Larry will continue to lead workshops, run his Business Improvement Groups, and both he and Elaine will remain very much involved with the company.

All of us at TBG are thankful to have Larry and Elaine with us as we continue to grow.
